Or at least we think so.

That’s why we offer a variety of services all under one roof. And it’s these multiple provisions, along with our excellent customer service, that make us an ideal community venue.

We have a library and a children’s centre along with sports, conference and meeting facilities which are all available to hire, and our environmentally friendly, award winning, modern building is fully accessible to all visitors, with a lift to the first floor as well as changing rooms and toilet facilities on both floors.

Because we are situated at the heart of our own local community we understand the importance of the work carried out by community groups, sporting organisations and charities. So to recognise the work you do we offer discounted hire rates to community groups, with even lower prices available to registered charities.

Plus we’re very close to the, just a 10 minute walk from Worle Parkway train station and only 12 miles from Bristol Airport which makes us an ideal venue for local, national and even international attendees! And as we’re open seven days a week we can accommodate groups that meet in the evenings or at weekends and there are always be staff on hand to answer your questions.

This could be why our existing customers are as diverse as first aid trainers, counselling services, housing associations, weight-loss groups and martial arts groups among many others!

So come and visit us soon to experience a quality service with a real sense of community.

We look forward to meeting you.
